SUIT BROUGHT TO RECOVER LOSSES

Minority Stockholders of New Haven Take Action.

HUNDREDS OF MILLIONS

Action Begun in Boston by Whipple, Sears and Ogden, Representing Stockholders to Recover Three Hundred Millions.

Boston, July 17.—A restitution suit, whereby minority stockholders seek to compel former and present directors to restore to the treasury of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company approximately $102,000,000, alleged to have been illegally used in building up the system, was begun today in the Supreme Court.

The complaint alleges that losses resulting from the acquisition of the Boston & Maine trolley and steamship properties by the New Haven amounted to $102,000,000, and that under the Federal anti-trust act the New Haven Company is entitled to recover from the defendants three times that sum, or $306,000,000.

The plaintiffs, who are trustees of the late Olla Bull Vaughan's estate, and own 50 shares of the capital stock, asked for a receiver to take possession of all claims in favor of the defendant, but not to interfere with the administration of the current affairs of the New Haven Company.

The suit is against the corporation and the directors in office from 1904 to 1909. ohn L. Billard, who is said to have derived a profit of $2,000,000 from transactions with the company was not made a defendant because he was not a director during that period.

The suit in which the attorneys recently demanded that the directors join, is designed to force restitution from those responsible for funds alleged to have been illegally expended in building up the New Haven system.

Judge Brady issued an order of notice returnable next Friday to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed and why an injunction against the disposition of the defendants stock should not be issued.

Among the Defendants.

Among the defendants, who include various New Haven directors since 1903 and estates of deceased directors are:

William Rockefeller, Charles M. Pratt, Lewis Cass Ledyard, H. McK. Twombley, George McC. Miller, Geo. J. Brush, James S. Hemingway, Jas. H. Elton, Henry K. McHarg, Robt. W. Taft, William Skinner, Chas. S. Mellen, Alex. Cochrane, J. P. Morgan estate, Elwin Milner estate.

In addition the plaintiffs name Geo. F. Baker, T. DeWitt Cuyler, Edward Milligan, F. T. Maxwell, Theo. N. Vail, S. W. Winslow, Laurence Minot, Samuel Rea, Morton F. Plant, D. H. Warner John T. Pratt, Howard Scott, Jas. L. Richards, W. M. Crane, A. T. Hadley and J. H. Hustis, as having been directors since 1909, but, as to whether their failure to cause the road to institute a restitution suit has made them liable on account of negligence and violation of fiduciary duty, the plaintiffs state they are not advised.

The litigation is in the form of an equity action entered by the attorneys as trustees under the will of Olea Bull Vaughan.

The bill of complaint declares that the defendants, on account of breach of directors' duty, chiefly through causing the New Haven to acquire illegally its Boston & Maine, trolley and steamship properties, are bound to pay to the New Haven $162,000,000 "withdrawn therefrom wrongfully and for ultra vires and illegal purposes." It is alleged that the losses approximate $102,000,000, and that under the law the New Haven is entitled to recover three-fold the sum—or $306,000,000.

Government May Bring Suit.

Washington, July 17.—Negotiations between the New Haven Railroad and the Department of Justice to effect a peaceful dissolution of that system apparently came to an end today and unless there are unforeseen developments the government will file a dissolution suit next week.

Before it is filed Attorney General McReynolds will lay the whole New Haven case before President Wilson and ask his approval.

Mr. McReynolds' ears are not closed to further negotiation with railroad officials, but it was believed today that the New Haven has rested its case. Official notice of the directors' action yesterday in refusing to accept conditions laid down by Massachusetts for the sale of its Boston & Maine stock, came during the day. There was no intimation of any plan for complying with the government's demand, that the Boston & Maine stock be sold.

It was reported tonight that the New Haven will not fight the government's suit at all, and might even go so far as to appear in court, confess judgment and put it up to the court to determine whether a dissolution shall be ordered.

How far the government's bill may go in asking for a dissolution is doubtful. At one time the bill contained a provision asking for the separation from the New Haven of the old New England Railroad, secured years ago and considered a vital part of the system. There was some question as to whether the Sherman act will apply to the New England, and it is possible that this feature will be eliminated from the bill. If it is retained and the government should win, the New Haven will be stripped to its shore line and a few feeders.

Lincoln, Neb., July 17.—Charles W. Bryan, brother of the Secretary of State, tonight announced he will not seek the Democratic nomination for governor of Nebraska because his candidacy was conditional on the necessity of having a progressive Democratic candidate in the field and that necessity no longer exists.

HUERTA REACHES PUERTO IN SAFETY

Former President of Mexico Leaves Country

QUIET ENTRY INTO CITY

Anxious Day, However, for the Wives of the Two Mexican Generals Who Were Passing Through Rebel Territory.

Puerto Mexico, Mexico, July 17.—Gen. Victoriano Huerta, who recently resigned as provisional president of Mexico, arrived here shortly after 9 o'clock tonight, accompanied by General Blanquet, his minister of war. General Huerta will remain aboard his train tonight.

All arrangements were made early in the day for the reception of Huerta and Blanquet and the stage was so set that they could board the Dresden or Bristol and put out to sea so quickly and quietly as to rob their flight of all dramatic elements. Tracks were laid so that the special train could be pulled along the wharf.

None of the messages sent Huerta's wife or to General Camerna, commanding the special guard here, indicated Huerta's plans. Not even the captains of the German and British vessels had definite instructions. They were to leave the decision to Huerta himself. It was generally believed, however, that Huerta and Blanquet would go aboard the Dresden, and the other refugees aboard the Bristol and that the vessels would proceed for Jamaica or Havana.

It was a day of sharp anxiety, especially for the wives of the two leaders who were passing through a country where many revolutionists are known to be operating.

When Will He Leave?

When Gen. Huerta expects to leave his country and share the exile of Gen. Porfirio Diaz, whom he escorted to the coast three years ago, is unknown except perhaps to himself. Capt. Kohler, of the German cruiser Dresden, offered him his ship "for any use he cared to make of her," but Gen. Huerta merely thanked him, adding that he would return his call tomorrow.

The trip to this port was without incident or unpleasantness other than that occasionally the terrible heat of the tropical lowlands. With Huerta and Blanquet were the general staff. The party occupied a train of nine sleeping cars, four of which were given over to troops. Two other trains loaded with troops preceded Gen. Huerta's train. Behind him came another troop train.

Captain Kohler and staff, in formal dress uniform, were at the station and were officially presented to Gen. Huerta. Answering inquiries as to his health, Gen. Huerta assude the officers he felt very well, although somewhat tired from the heat.

British Vice Consul Gemmill also officially called on Huerta and presented him a message, presumably an offer of refuge on the British cruiser Bristol. Huerta read it and expressed pleasure at the consideration being shown him.

Local officials calling on General Huerta tonight were few in number, the only one of importance being Gen. Rincon, commander of the local garrison.

Commander Gabriel A. Carvallo, of the Mexican gunboat Zaragoza with his staff, also called, but Huerta asked to be excused for the night.

WORK ON ANTI-TRUST BILLS PROGRESSING

Senate Committees Take Firm Grip on Job.

All Hands Determined to Complete Preparation of Bills and Get Them Before the Senate as Soon as Possible.

Washington, July 17.—Senate committees took another firm grip today on the administration's anti-trust legislative programme and made progress on the Clayton bill, the railroad securities measure and the trade commission bill.

While the trade commission bill was under discussion again in the Senate, vigorously criticised by Senator Works, of California, the Inter-State commerce committee had it under advisement and virtually agreed to amend the section which would make unlawful "unfair competition."

The amendment proposed would authorize the proposed trade commission to determine what constitutes "unfair competition" and to order it stopped when determined. In each case, there would be a full court review.

While the committee made some progress on the railway securities bill, the question whether the Inter-State Commerce Commission should be empowered to determine to what use funds realized by carriers from issues of securities had been used, still is undetermined.

The judiciary committee decided the section of the Clayton measure relating to holding companies should be made stronger, but it has not been able to amend the section to its satisfaction. The matter will be considered further tomorrow.

MRS. CARMAN FREE UNDER HEAVY BOND

Indicted On Charge of First Degree Manslaughter

PLEADS NOT GUILTY

Freeport, N. Y., July 17.—Mrs. Florence Conklin Carman, indicted today on the charge of first degree manslaughter in connection with the killing on the night of June 30, in her doctor-husband's office of Mrs. Louise Bailey, came back to her home and her family here tonight, temporarily a free woman. She was released for trial under $20,000 bail fifteen minutes after the grand jury made known its finding.

When Mrs. Carman was led into the court room late today for arraignment she plainly showed the strain she had been under since her arrest. When the clerk of the court asked her how she would plead, her lips opened to answer, but Mr. Levy, her counsel, interrupted her. Upon the understanding that his client would have the right to withdraw her plea within two weeks and file a demurrer and a motion to quash the indictment on the ground of insufficient evidence, Levy entered a plea of not guilty.

After the bail bond had been arranged, Mrs. Carman was led to an anteroom and there she collapsed.

"I can't talk," she said later to reporters. "I am too overcome. I still fail to understand why the grand jury declined to heed my plea to tell my story."

While she was on her way home, District Attorney Smith reiterated that he had new evidence which might later lead to the finding of a superceding indictment charging Mrs. Carman with a higher degree of homicide. He sent detectives to a marsh about a mile from the Carman home to dig in a place an informant said he had seen a man bury a revolver the day after the murder.

No revolver was found there, however. The district attorney also asserted that if certain clews were developed a member of the Carman household would be placed under arrest as an accessory after the fact.

JUDGE LONG ASPIRES TO PLACE ON SUPREME BENCH.

Those About Washington However Think McReynolds Will Win.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, July 17.—Judge B. F. Long has been added to the list of North Carolinians aspiring to succeed the late Justice Lurton on the Supreme court bench.

Senator Overman and A. L. Brooks, of Greensboro, will present the petition of Judge Clark. The best guess here, however, is that Attorney General McReynolds will succeed Justice Lurton. McReynolds is a lawyer of great ability. As an adviser to the President on political matters, however, he has not been a success.

Politics has been a secondary matter with the attorney general. He has refused to play the game.

Gentlemen here who generally know what they are talking about say that nthe event of Attorney General McReynolds being named to the Supreme bench, E. J. Justice, of Greensboro, will be urged to succeed him as attorney general. P. R. A.

Woman Arrested in London, After a Hard Struggle With Attendants.

London, July 17.—A militant suffragette today slashed with a butcher's cleaver the portrait of Thomas Carlyle, painted by Sir John Millais, and hanging in the National Portrait Gallery.

The woman was arrested after a severe struggle with the attendants. At the polise station she gave the name of Anne Hunt.

The gallery attendants who since the recent militant suffragette outrages in national institutions have been keeping close guard on the treasures under their care, noticed a young woman walking from picture to picture apparently admiring them.

Eventually, she came to the portrait of Carlyle, and quickly taking a butcher's cleaver, from the folds of her dress, she viciously attacked it. The glass covering was smashed and a slit was made in the canvas from the top of Carlyle's head through the face to the chin.

SELECT NAME FOR NEW METHODIST UNIVERSITY.

Committee of the Educational Commission of Church to Decide.

Atlanta, July 17.—Selection of a name and site for the new university to be established here by the Methodist Episcopal church, South, will be considered by a committee of the educational commission of the church, it was announced tonight by Bishop Warren A. Candler, newly elected chancellor of the institution.

Various names already have been proposed, two of the chief ones being Methodist University of the South and Candler University. The latter has been proposed in honor of the institution's first chancellor and his brother, Ala G. Candler, of this city, who yesterday announced a subscription of $1,000,000 to the endowment fund.

Bishop Candler also announced tonight that various other contributions to the university had been made. T. T. Fishburn, of Roanoke, Va., has subscribed $25,000.

IS MRS. CARMAN GUILTY OR INNOCENT? WILL THE PRESENT CHAIN OF EVIDENCE CONVICT HER OF MRS. BAILEY'S MURDER?

1. MRS. CARMAN, 2. DR. CARMAN, 3. ELWOOD T. BARDES, 4. MADELINE BAILEY, 5. HAZEL COMBS, 6. CELIA COLEMAN, 7. W. D. BAILEY.

The illustration shows Mrs. Florence Carman, charged with the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey in Dr. Edwin Carman's office, and the chain of witnesses who are prominent in the mysterious tragedy at Freeport, N. Y. The whole country is interested in what fate has in store for Mrs. Carman, who was so suspicious and jealous of her doctor husband that she secretly installed a dictograph in her home so she could spy upon Dr. Carman when he attended to women patients. Dr. Carman is doing all he can to defend his accused wife, and he refuses to reveal the skeleton in his family closet. William D. Bailey, husband of the victim, and his daughter Madeline, are reluctant and heartbroken witnesses, for they fear a shadow may be cast upon the good name of Mrs. Bailey if suspected revelations develop. Elwood T. Bardes is the insurance collector who says he saw a hatless woman dressed like Mrs. Carman walk away from the window through which the fatal shot was fired. Celia Coleman is the colored maid in the Carman home, who now says Mrs. Carman entered the kitchen from the yard right after the shot was fired. Hazel Coombs was in the doctor's reception room when the murder occurred.

WESTERN STRIKE MAY BE AVERTED

Engineers and Firemen Agree to Arbitrate.

DECISION LAST NIGHT

Walk-Out Was Threatened Last Night But Invitation of Federal Arbitration Board is Accepted Begin at Once.

Chicago, July 17—Danger of a strike of the engine crews of Western railroads was deferred tonight when representatives of the men accepted an offer of mediation by William L. Chambers, chairman of the Federal board of mediation and conciliation. The meeting with the full board will begin here July 20th.

The mediation offer came as a result of a request by A. W. Trenholm, chairman of the committee of general managers, which was made in spite of a formal announcement that the employes would decline to accept mediation. The latter charged that in the past the railroads had refused to abide by the findings of arbitration boards.

The following message of acceptance was sent tonight by Warren S. Stone, grand chief engineer of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, and W. S. Carter, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen.

"We have refused to join the managers' committee in the request for mediation because we feared that it would be an implied acceptance of arbitration. No one knows better than yourself and the other members of the Federal board of mediation and conciliation the manner in which the railroads have repudiated arbitration awards. We recognize, however, that we cannot afford to refuse your courteous proffer of your friendly offices and therefore we accept the same. We believe it is unfair to ask us to wait

COURT ORDERS ALL TELEGRAMS SHOWN

That Passed Between Missing Women and Lawyer.

IN LAST THREE YEARS

Mother of Sisters Who Disappeared From Atlanta in June is Made Temporary Receiver for Her Daughter's Estate.

Atlanta, Ga., July 17.—Court action was taken here today in connection with the mysterious disappearance of Mrs. Elois Nelms Dennis and Miss Beatrice Nelms for whom a nation-wide search is being made.

Judge George L. Bell, of the Superior court, signed an order directing the Western Union Telegraph Co., the Postal Telegraph Co., and the Southern Bell Telephone Co., to turn over to Mrs. John W. Nelms, of this city, mother of the missing women, all telegrams which may have passed during the last three years between Mrs. Dennis and Victor E. Innes, former assistant United States district attorney of Nevada. The order in addition included any other telegrams which might aid in solving the mystery.

The court also appointed Mrs. Nelms temporary receiver of the estate of Miss Beatrice Nelms. The latter has large property holdings and it was asserted in the receivership petition that her interests would be placed in jeopardy unless a rtceiver was named.

Innes was Mrs. Dennis' attorney in Reno, Nevada, in 1912 when she obtained a divorce. It was reported he had been commissioned by Mrs. Dennis to make investments for her in Mexico, but a statement made in Portland, Oregon, the attorney denied the report and said he had no business relations with the woman other than as her counsel in divorce proceedings.

No trace has been found of either Mrs. Dennis or Miss Nelms who left here in June on a business trip to Texas.

WASHINGTON USES EVERY INFLUENCE

To Bring About Immediate Peace in Mexico.

DEALING WITH ZAPATA

Rebel of the South of Mexico With His Following May Refuse to Give in to Constitutionalist Rule—Conference.

Washington, July 17.—Every influence and diplomatic agency at the disposal of the government was working today for immediate peace in Mexico.

The administration is convinced, with the elimination of Huerta, the factions in Mexico will be drawn together quickly. To assure restoration of normal conditions without further bloodshed, officials here are exerting themselves to smooth the way for a new and stable administration which shall be recognized by the powers.

Not only is the American government at this moment counselling General Carranza to arrange with Francisco Carbajal, Huerta's successor, for the peaceful transfer of the government at Mexico City to the Constitutionalists but it became known today that the administration is indirectly in communication with Zapata, leader of the revolution in Southern Mexico.

Zapata has 2,400 men and although most of them are poorly equipped, they would constitute a serious menace to a new government if they remained in revolution. Zapata who demands agrarian reforms, made common cause with the Constitutionalists and obtained supplies from them with which to fight the Huerta government. It is not known yet, however, whether he will lay down his arms in favor of Carranza.

Influence Being Used.

The United States is using its influence through friends of Zapata to bring him into harmony with the peace

ARKANSAS MINERS AND GUARDS CLASH

PROPERTY IS DAMAGED

Strikers Destroy Mining Property With Torch and Dynamite—McReynolds Says That State and County Must Act.

Fort Smith, Ark., July 17.—After a pitched battle between several hundred striking coal miners and their sympathizers and 100 guards stationed at the Prairie Creek mines, of the Mammoth Vein Coal Co., near Ft. Smith, today, which ended in the rout of the guards, tipples of three mines were destroyed by fire and dynamite. The property damage is estimated at $200,000. So far as can be ascertained, no one was killed or seriously wounded in the fighting, which began shortly after daybreak and continued until late in the day.

Rioters held possession of the mines for several hours, wrecking the plants with torch and explosives. Tonight the properties are deserted.

County officials went to the scene late today, but before they arrived the attacking party had dispersed.

Today's rioting was a culmination of a series of disturbances which have occurred at intervals, since the contract with the United Mine Workers was abrogated last March, and announcement made that the properties owned by the Bache-Denman Coal Company, but leased by the Mammoth Vein Company, would be operated on an "open shop" basis.

Employes Badly Beaten.

In one attack several employes were badly beaten after they were forced by a mob estimated to have numbered more than a thousand men, to withdraw the fires from the boilers. Last Sunday night Frogtown, a union mining camp a mile distant from Prairie Creek, was "shot up," and the disorder was repeated Wednesday night. No one was injured.

At the time of the first outbreak, an injunction was secured in the Federal Court to restrain the strikers from interfering with the operation of the mines and a force of fifty men, under the direction of the United States marshal, placed on guard. This force was recalled under instructions of Attorney General McReynolds, who held it was the duty of the State and county officials to protect the mine property.

Last Friday officials of the company appealed to United States District Attorney Bourland to be permitted to recruit a company of men to be commissioned by the United States marshal, but under instructions from Washington it was not organized, the Attorney General holding to his previous ruling that the situation should be taken care of by local authorities.

Governor George W. Hayes tonight stated that no request had been made to him for troops.

CONVICTED OF USING THE MAILS TO DEFRAUD PEOPLE.

Two Men at Chicago Given Eight Years—Others Get Fines.

Chicago, July 17.—Convicted with seven others with having used the mails to defraud in the operation of the Barr & Widen Mercantile Agency, Abram H. Freeman, Chicago, and Frederick L. Wendler, St. Louis, today were sentenced to eight years' imprisonment each and fined $39,000 each in Federal court.

Among the other defendants and the penalties imposed were:

Jos. T. Stevens, Kansas City; Joseph B. Finkleman, Kansas City, and Robert B. Pender, each three years and a fine of $2,500. The government charged that more than $1,000,000 was obtained by convincing creditors of bankrupts that their accounts would be collected by the agency from "concealed assets" of the bankrupts. The government contended that after receiving fees from many States for collecting such accounts the agencies made no effort to serve its clients.

The defendants were admitted to bail pending action on their appeal to the United States Circuit Court of Appeals.

"PRACTICAL SLAVERY."

Results From Present Federal Steamboat Inspection Law.

Washington, July 17.—"Practical slavery" results from the present Federal steamboat inspection laws Capt. William A. Westcott, of San Francisco, declared before the Senate commerce committee today. Captain Westcott appeared in favor of the Hardy bill, already passed by the House which would repeal the provision under which officers who decline offers of service on any boat endanger their licenses.

BILL INTRODUCED TO ABOLISH PLUCKING BOARD.

In Congress by Representative Britton, of Illinois.

Washington, July 17.—A bill to abolish the "plucking board" of the navy was introduced today by Representative Britton, of Illinois, a member of the naval affairs committee. The measure would provide for retirement through a system of mental and physical examinations. On a second failure to pass the examination an officer automatically would be retired.

City League Games This Afternoon

GIANTS AGAINST BOYS BRIGADE AND Y. M. C. A. AGAINST THE W. L. I.

First Game.
Giants vs. Boys' Brigade, 3 o'clock.
Second Game.
Y. M. C. A. vs. W. L. I. 5 P. M.

This afternoon at 3 o'clock the Boys' Brigade and the Giants will stage a battle royal for possession of a first division berth, and some lively doings must be expected. Emerson's Brigade boys have fooled all the wiseacres in the league, and the coming of July finds them playing with such a dash and steadiness that many regard them as strong contenders for the flag. Good pitching, timely hitting and good work on the paths has helped the Brigadiers to become one of the most dangerous clubs in the league, and to pull them off the first rung.

For the last three weeks Manager Davis has not been able to boast of a full regular team on the field at one time. First Holt quit, followed by Rivenbark and then their star catcher Kite. In spite of it all, with minor injuries to players, their mighty bludgeons have rarely ever failed to respond to the call for runs and the Giants have continued to make a good showing.

Excitement will reign supreme when the Association boys meet the Light Infantry in the latter game of the afternoon. The Association is now in the land of the enemy making desperate efforts to recuperate their lost fortunes. While all of Manager Seltter's men are in a hopeful frame of mind yet it must be admitted that they will have their work cut out for them if they are again to occupy the top in the pennant race.

At the first of the season the Association boys found the games with several of their rivals to be isoft pickings, but the bolsters are not so much in evidence in the present fighting situation.

The W. L. I. situation is engaging the serious attention of the City League magnates and disturbing their mental equilibrium greatly. It will be remembered that Manager Watters lost two of his best men recently when they joined the Pee Dee League, and this means a serious handicap to the W. L. I. team and may mean that they will slide down the ladder, but Watters is confident that his team will shake up and come through with the winning dope. Anyway, the demons are going into the game today determined to win, and as the Association boys have the same grim determination, the fans are promised spokesman for a party of young people who have been considering the ada thriller from start to finish.

Walcott is 42 years old.

THEATRICAL

Double feature day at the Grand Theatre. Therefore all the roads that lead to this attractive, cool as an icicle theatre, will be more than crowded today. This is going to be the banner Saturday in the history of Wilmington "movies" and you must be certain to be in on the great show, which not only consists of superb films, but of a rare programme rendered by Miss Framan, the expert Wurlitzer artist, now playing a special engagement at the Grand. This big additional feature, without additional price of admission, which is 5 cents today, afternoon and night.

Nothing but special feature films, each a two-reeler, will be flashed on the big Grand screen today. The first will be the Biograph's masterpiece, "The Science of Crime." It is a deep, fascinating and thrilling study in crime, with a genius in criminology and a gang of crooks as the central characters. From drawing room to court room and thieves' den the onlookers are carried, in intensely interesting and gripping way. A star cast appears, including Kate Bruce, Louise Vale and George Morgan. Note that glorious fact, will you?

The other special two-part offering is Melie's "Terrible Alternative," and it is the dramatic novelty of the day. It is a genuine dramatic sensation, and is something big.

Today at the Bijou.

Today's big week-end bill at Wilmington's popular amusement center, is headed by a mammoth offering in a big two-reel Victor Dramatic Feature Release, "Her Ragged Knight." This picture will be found one of the most thrilling and spectacular dramas of the time, and it is brand new—in fact, nothing over two weeks old is ever shown at the Bijou, as a rule. "Her Ragged Knight," tells a big story, which was written by one of the country's most famous novelists, and is produced in movies by a galaxy of bright screen stars, favorites of everyone who follows the movies.

Animated Weekly No. 121 will come next on today's bill, and among other big things will show "Launching of Trans-Atlantic Flyer," "New York's Prize Babies," "Columbia's Boy League," "Sports in Mid-Pacific," "Military Encampment," "Imposing Religious Ceremony," "American Volcano Active," "Fire Heroes Rewarded," and "The Worst Fire in Years." It also shows the big intercollegiate rowing championship pictures this week.

"Down on the Farm," is a big Keystone comedy, one of the biggest of this great line of comedy features, and will appeal to everyone. It is enacted by some of the Keystone comedy actors whom everyonp knows, and will make a distinct hit.

INSTRUCTING TEACHERS IN PRACTICAL WORK.

At the State Normal Summer School at Greensboro.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Greensboro, N. C., July 16.—The Normal College in its summer school work is giving the teachers who are present from all parts of the State instruction in practical school work. The training school, where 100 children of the city attend, affords this opportunity.

Both the theory and practice of teaching are shown here in the school room while the teachers observe and take notes of the process. The theory of the method to be used with the class is advanced and then unfolded in practice, the lesson following out the theory and combining it, a process that leaves its emphasis.

A most interesting feature of this work for observation is the physical training under the direction of Miss McAllister, the regular physical culture teacher of the college. This is especially important at a time when teachers of the State generally are interested in the games that make for the physical development of the child. No apparatus is used by Miss McAllister, the games and exercises being adopted at the desks. The folk dances, which have sprung up among the schools, may be observed also.

The observation work of the training school is from the 1st to the 10th grades. Three courses are given, being primary methods, grammar school and high school methods. Courses also are given in drawing, pedagogy, psychology. In each grade there is one observation period each day.

KINSTON SECURES SERVICE OF MR. GILBERT WHITE.

For Installation of Municipal Improvements This Fall.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Kinston, N. C., July 17.—Gilbert White, of Charlotte and Durham, will supervise the installation of municipal improvements here in the fall. White was the engineer chosen by city council over four competitors. He has been engaged in many notable engineering undertakings in North Carolina, and laid the first sewerage and paving here in 1903 while in the employ of Ludlow, of Winston-Salem.

By the presenting of an old map made by White in 1903 his fee for sewerage was reduced by him from six to four per cent, the engineer stating that the map would be adequate for the extensions. He will have charge of the work of making extensions to the lighting and sewerage services and street paving, in which $100,000 will be expended. White is now supervising city improvements in Raleigh, Wilson, Washington and Rocky Mount.

IN DANGER OF PROSECUTION.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Kinston, N. C., July 17.—The machinery of the law is brewing sensations for four counties in this vicinity. A thousand people in the judicial district comprised by Lenoir, Duplin, Onslow and Sampson, according to the estimate of Solicitor Henry E. Shaw, are in danger of prosecution for failure to list their taxes. The number includes corporations and individuals.

Solicitor Shaw has ordered that lists of the defaulters be given to the grand juries as soon as they sit. The sheriff and register of deeds of each county will go before the grand juries as the only witnesses, will produce the tax books and the names of taxable businesses and persons unlisted, and the presentments will be made by the grand juries, separately as required by law.

NEWTON HABEAS CORPUS HEARING IS POSTPONED.

On Account of Judge Connor's Conflicting Court Duties.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Sprunt Newton, of Fayetteville, in this city yesterday, was compelled to postpone the hearing on account of conflicting court duties. Just when the case will come up for trial it is not known. The date will be set later.

As a result of the famous Newton-McArthur note case, it is said, Newton and his wife parted some time ago. The possession of the child is now the subject of controversy. Several prominent lawyers are interested in the case.

GAMBLING BRAWL IN DUPLIN.

Results in Death of a Negro, Who Was Stabbed.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Warsaw, N. C., July 17.—As the result of a drunken gambling brawl one negro is dying, and a number are fugitives from justice. A number of negroes were gambling on Sunday morning, a few miles from here, when a dispute arose over the game of cards, and Lon Livingston stabbed George Newkirk in the forehead. The negroes kept the matter quiet until last night when they became afraid that Newkirk was going to die, and then summoned Dr. J. M. Williams, who stated that he could not live through today, and notified the authorities. Sheriff G. G. Best summoned a number of the leading citizens of this town, and the party searched all last night, but no trace of the parties who were charged with the crime could be obtained.

Spend a pleasant Sunday at Southport (five hour lay over). Steamer Wilmington leaves 9 A. M. and 2:30 P. M.—Advertisement.

FRED MERKLE

Red McGhee says:

Not long ago the world sat back an' called Fred Merkle first prize "Jack"—the kind with big, long ears. He pulled a big world series bone, caused 30,000 fans to groan—some cursed an' some shed tears. Poor Fred was sure in deep disgrace when he forgot to touch that base—it sealed the Giants' doom. The wise one's whispered: "Bye, bye, Fred, your playin' days are done." Some said, "Go hunt an ivory tomb."

His little lapse of foot an' brain was talked about on stage an' train, from pulpits an' at home. Sky pilots traced great lessons from an' vordeveelians made jokes bum 'bout Merkle's ivory dome. But Mugge McGraw—he just stood pat. He knew that Fred could field an' bat, an' make up for his slip. Soon fickle fando's hoots an' jsers at Fred gave way to shouts an' cheers—his comeback was a pip.

He's mighty careful of his feet. There ain't much chance that he'll repeat the famous bull he made. The way he's coverin' first base makes stars like those of Chance an' Chase grow dim an' start to fade. His stick work's pretty timely, too. He bangs 'em for a base or two to bring the runners in. The fans won't ever quite forget, but they'll forgive, it's safe to bet, the Merkle Mental Sin

NEWS OF A DAY FROM THE STATE'S CAPITAL

Lad Terribly Injured by Explosion of Gunpowder

Master Williamson May Possibly Recover—Arguments Heard in Seaboard vs. Laurinburg & Southern.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 17.—Counsel for the Seaboard Air Line and the Laurinburg & Southern Railroad companies were before the Corporation Commission today to present the arguments from their opposing viewpoints in the case of the Laurinburg & Southern vs. Seaboard Air Line to prevent the Seaboard from exacting too expensive a type of interlocking crossing at the junction of the two roads at Laurinburg, which the plaintiff is under contract with the Seaboard to equip to the satisfaction of the larger road.

The evidence in the case was heard some weeks ago. The case for the Laurinburg & Southern was presented today by Winston & Biggs and G. B. Patterson and for the Seaboard Air Line by R. C. Lawrence and Murray Allen. The commission will not dispose of the case for some days yet.

Terribly Injured But May Live.

There is some hope expressed today by physicians for the recovery of Master W. H. Williamson, Jr., son of W. H. Williamson, the well known cotton mill man, who was terribly injured Saturday evening by an explosion of powder. The little fellow, who is 11 years old, found a number of cans of powder that had evidently been stuck away in the attic of the old Tucker residence that is now the home of the Williamsons, and carried them out into the yard as "playthings," when one of them exploded, throwing him some distance and literally stripping the clothing from the upper part of his body. The small shade tree under which he was playing was stripped of foliage. The boy was found in an unconscious condition and several times since his life has been despaired of. No one seems to have known of the existence of the powder or why it was ever stored away in the Tucker home.

Mt. Gilead Depot Matter Settled.

The Corporation Commission made an order today re-affirming its former order for the erection of the new passenger station at Mt. Gilead on what is known as the "Ledbetter" site, the exceptions med by certain citizens urging the "Cook" site instead, being at the same time overruled. This matter was originally heard by Commissioner Lee, who decided in favor of the "Ledbetter" site. Then the exceptions were filed and heard on Tuesday by the full commission with the result that the "Ledbetter" site is now finally settled upon.

Henry Blount Critically Ill.

Mr. Henry Blount, for many years widely known as a newspaper man and lecturer and one of the most picturesque writers the State has ever produced, is critically ill at the North Carolina Soldiers' Home and is not expected to live.

Comrade Henry Cannon, of Sampson county, died at the home last night, aged 84 years. He was a member of Company C, Seventh North Carolina regiment, and had been in the home only since January. He has a daughter, Mrs. Mary Warren, of Durham.

Governor Craig in Asheville.

After inspecting the Whitney convict camp today on the Yadkin river, Governor Craig will go to Asheville for a couple of weeks and fill a number of engagements in Western Carolina, not expecting to be in the executive offices in Raleigh again for about three weeks. Col. J. P. Kerr, private secretary, is looking after the executive offices here in the absence of the governor, who will have the more important and pressing matters forwarded to him at Asheville during the time he is in the mountain city.

Thirty-Nine Defendants in Court for Violation.

Wilson, July 17.—Mayor Dickinson and Chief of Police Wiggs are determined to enforce the sanitary ordinance against surface closets and yesterday 29 defendants were in court and through their attorneys asked the Mayor to grant them until September 1 to comply with the law. They made a peculiar plea and the extension was granted them. The attorneys stated that the local plumbers had demanded such extravagant prices that the work was a burden. In view of the extension of time the defendants agreed to bring plumbers to Wilson and have the work done at reasonable prices.

(Special Star Correspondence)

New Bern, N. C., July 16.—The Atlantic Coast Line Railroad Company, whose line enters Newbern, is planning to do some extensive advertising in exploiting this section of the State and during the past few weeks they have had representatives visiting the various towns and cities in Eastern North Carolina soliciting the support of the various organizations which have in charge the advancement of the cities of this section.

Yesterday morning Messrs. Pulliam and Lloyd of the Coast Line Company came to Newbern and conferred with the members of the Chamber of Commerce on this subject. Quite a number of the members were present and these were heartily in favor of appropriating one hundred dollars for the work and this was done. The Coast Line Company intends getting out a very attractive souvenir booklet which will be distributed all over the United States, and Newbern and its advantages and resources is to be extensively written up in this.

May Bring Negro to Wilmington

A report reaching Newbern yesterday from Jacksonville, Onslow county, at which place David Pearson, the 18-year-old negro who a week ago attempted to criminally assault Mrs. Robert Leary, whose home is near Richlands, is to the effect that Sheriff Henderson is thinking seriously of bringing the negro to this city or taking him to Wilmington for safe keeping until the next term of Onslow county Superior court. It is said that Pearson has ackowledged that he is the person who visited the Leary Home and grabbed hold of the woman and dire threats have been made against him. Sheriff Henderson has taken every precaution to prevent any demonstration against the black but he fears that some one will start a movement to lynch the man and if this is done, the mob would find but little trouble in breaking into the jail.

May Cancel Purchase of Fire Motor.

When the Newbern board of aldermen a few weeks ago placed an order with the American La France Fire Engine Company, a machine costing $9,000 being purchased, local firemen thought that the new motor driven combination would oe on hand and in readiness for operation by the latter part of September or the first of October. However, such may not be the case, as the aldermen have uncovered facts which have the appearance that Newbern was being "stuck" on the deal. From a Southern State comes word that this company disposed of an engine for $8,250 and it is believed that this engine is identical in every way with the one purchased by the Newbern aldermen. So strong are the convictions of the aldermen that they held up the purchase and a rigid investigation is now in progress. If it is found that this city has been overcharged there is a probability that the deal will be called off.

Encouraging Crop Report.

Encouraging crop reports continue to reach Newbern from all parts of Craven and adjoining counties and the present outlook for a bumper corn and cotton crop is more encouraging than it has been in many years. J. A. Smith, of Trenton, Jones county, was among the visitors in the city yesterday and while here he talked interestingly of conditions existing in that particular section. Mr. Smith stated that the stand of cotton was excellent and that the staple would probably be in readiness for picking by the latter part of next month or the first of September. Considerable tobaco is also being grown in Jones county.

OAK RIDGE NEWS.

Work on New Alumni Building Progressing Satisfactorily.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Oak Ridge, N. C., July 16.—Work on the new alumni building of Oak Ridge Institute is progressing satisfactorily. The walls are up to the second story, and the first floor framed in. The scene is one of busy activities. The dormitories are being overhauled, and repainted. The fall session will open September 16th, under most favorable auspices. Already many students have signed up, and applications for catalogues are unusually numerous.

Mr. D. L. Nance has returned from Eastman, where he has been for some time studying methods. He will be in the business college department of Oak Ridge the coming year. This department of the school will be enlarged to include banking and business practice.

A lighting plant will be installed to light, not only the school building and dormitories, but residences and business houses of the community. Oak Ridge Institute has over 400 acres of land in its campus and farm, and will have the unique distinction of raising its own wheat, to be converted into the purest and best flour at neighboring roller mills. On its farm properties will be grown all the green food supplies for its kitchen; and its orchards, covering 25 acres or more, fruit for the students. And, by the way, the fruit crop is very fine this year.

Prof. J. A. Holt and Prof. M. H. Holt are at Clifton Springs, N. Y., recuperating. Reports concerning their health are encouraging.

Mr. W. E. Benbow, aged 67, a prominent citizen, farmer and stock raiser of this community, died quite suddenly at his home last Tuesday night.

(Specvial Star Correspondence)

The Atlantic Coast Line has arranged for a train of exhibit cars to make the circuit of the fairs and samples of the tobacco, cotton, corn, vegetables and fruits of Eastern Carolina will be shown to the Northern farmers. The Wilson Chamber of Commerce has taken the matter in charge and will see to it that this county is represented.

SHALL THIS STATE HAVE GRADE A MEDICAL COLLEGE?

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Charlotte, N. C., July 17.—That North Carolina needs and should have a grade A medical college, where students may be accorded the same instruction as that given along other lines, with the added facilities of added hospital accommodation, clinics, etc., was the unanimous verdict of a group of Charlotte business and professional men who held an informal meeting here yesterday to discuss the matter. The proposition came up as a sequel to arrangements entered into some time ago between the North Carolina Medical College located here and the Richmond Medical College at Richmond looking to the merging the two institutions, which would move the North Carolina institution to Richmond, as related by your Charlotte correspondent some time ago.

This would leave the two and a half million people of the State without a medical college in their midst and would cause young men from this State to seek their medical training in other States as they have done in the past. The arrangements for the merger of the Charlotte institution with that of Richmond have not been completed in all details, but it is likely they will be carried out unless something unforseen takes place at once. The Charlotte gentlemen who conferred yesterday will probably take some steps at once to sound the minds of leading citizens in other places in the State, with a view to starting a campaign for State aid for class A medical institution, probably wit hthe local institution as a nucleus. It is the idea of some of the promoters that the proposed institution be made an adjunct of the University.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONVENTION ENDS

To be Held Next Year at Elon College—New Officers Elected.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., July 16.—The 32nd annual session of the Sunday School and Christian Endeavor convention of the Christian church for this district, closed this afternoon. This afternoon was devoted to Christian Endeavor. There were addresses by Rev. B. J. Earp on "Some Things Christian Endeavor Does"; Dr. W. A. Harper on "Christian Endeavor the Hope of the Church," and Rev. H. E. Rountree on "Definiteness in Soul Winning."

GUDGER MAKES COUNTER CHARGE AGAINST REYNOLDS.

Says Latter Has Failed to File Hotel Expense Account Required.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Asheville, N. C., July 17.—Congressman James M. Gudger has issued a statement in reply to the charge of Robert R. Reynolds that the institution of suit against him by the management of the Suyeta Park hotel, at Waynesville, for a board bill alleged to be due for the entertainment of his delegates to the Congressional Convention at Waynesville, was a frame-up and political trick on the part of Gudger.

The latter states that he had no knowledge of the suit until he saw an account of it in the papers and declares that Reynolds is trying to divert the attention of the public from the real issue. The Congressman charges that Reynolds has failed to file an account of his hotel expenses with the clerk of the House of Representatives, as is provided by law. Congressman Gudger says that Reynolds should have left his name out of the affair as he has never seen the woman who is bringing the suit.

Testifies She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lackawanna, N. Y.—"After my first child was born I felt very miserable and could not stand on my feet. My sister-in-law wished me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my nerves became firm, appetite good, step elastic, and I lost that weak, tired feeling. That was six years ago and I have had three fine healthy children since. For female troubles I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it works like a charm. I do all my own work."—Mrs. A. F. KREAMER, 1574 Electric Avenue, Lackawanna, N. Y.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. Watchful waiting wins. Ha! Ha! Doggone you!

It is altogether a mistake to suppose that Georgia is a locality better known as Atlanta.

If everything pans out all right in Mexico it will be denounced in the next Progressive platform.

When a man can't meet his debts, he finds out that the hardest part of it is to keep his debts from meeting him.

Some women wear all the diamonds they've got, but other women wonder how they got all the diamonds they wear.

No news—continued progress and prosperity in the South. What everybody knows is not news, except away from home.

Huerta has gone off and left Carbajal the bag to hold because the old Indian had held it till there was nothing to it.

Giving the a's the broad sound, we should say that Carbajal, the name of Mexico's new president, is pronounced "Carbahall."

Some politicians get on both sides of the fence because the fence has two sides to it and they hardly know which side they like the best.

When a man who comes to a bad end sets up the claim that he came from a fine family it shows that he went back on the family more than he came from it.

A woman's belief that buying a diamond is an investment only dwindles down to doubt when she tries to borrow money on it from a pawn broker who knows his business.

Al Fairbrother comes along and says in Everything: "The grim old philosopher of the Wilmington Star," etc. Why the "grim?" Why the "old?" Before the season at Wrightsville Beach is over, Everything should come down and fire a salute to the flag. Look what's happened to Huerta!

When ex-President Huerta left the City of Mexico on Thursday he embraced and kissed his men friends good-bye. We should say it was tough on him to have to do it, even according to custom, but we have an idea that he considered it even tougher when he kissed his office good-bye.

When a woman's husband gives her a check, she takes it to the bank and gets it cashed, if the old man has the money to his credit. If she gets the money, she thinks it is a part of the cashier's duty to show her the books so she can find out how much money her husband has left for future use.

North Carolina newspaper publishers are discussing the advisability of the cash-in-advance system for subscriptions. They have lost money by the credit system because they never do such a thing as to consult Bradstreet's or Dun's as to the standing of their subscribers. A great many subscribers have been known to get their newspaper on credit and buy their circus tickets for cash.

When little Joe Brown decided to run for the United States Senate in Georgia, it is unfortunate that there was no way of running without Tom Watson's finding it out. Hoever, when a campaign starts up, Tom picks out the opposition side, because opposition and plenty of it is what he likes. Just as little Joe's luck would have it, Tom is supporting him in his most reckless manner.

Senator Simmons has introduced a bill in Congress authorizing the Secretary of War to have the premises connected with Fort Johnstone, in Southport, improved and converted into a public park and maintained as such until the government may need the ground for some other purpose. The bill appropriates $15,000 for the work.

NORTH CAROLINA AT THE WORLD'S EXPOSITION.

The commissioners appointed by Governor Craig to enlist support for the movement to have North Carolina creditably represented at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, which opens in San Francisco next year, are continuing their tour of the State to arouse interest, to submit plans for securing funds, and to urge a complete exhibit of the State's products and manufactures. They make it a point to visit the industrial centers and large cities, and it is gratifying that the people are co-operating with them in their efforts in behalf of the State.

When they visited Charlotte last Saturday they spoke to a representative gathering of the business men and manufacturers of the city and met with cheering assurance that Charlotte will heartily support the plans for a State exhibit. It was unanimously agreed, says the Charlotte News, that the 'Frisco exposition will offer one of the greatest opportunities the State ever had to advertise its resources and make known its great variety of opportunities. A committee was appointed to urge the city of Charlotte to donate, through its board of aldermen, the sum of $1,000 for the fund with which it is proposed to erect a building or secure space and pay the expenses of an exhibit.

The same committee also was authorized to appear before the next Legislature, together with committees from other commercial bodies in the State, for the purpose of urging an appropriation and pressing upon the General Assembly the importance and advantage of a State exhibit that will present North Carolina in its proper light before the world. Every community should do as Charlotte has done, and wherever the commissioners go they should be greeted with like enthusiasm and public spirit as was manifested by the forward looking citizens of Charlotte.

All the commissioners addressed the Charlotte meeting, and several of Charlotte's leaders in progress joined them in speaking of the need of an exhibit at San Francisco. Among the speakers was Colonel F. A. Olds, who was some time ago appointed by the directors of the exposition to act as exposition commissioner for North Carolina.

As noted from the Charlotte News, Colonel Olds spoke of the great resources of North Carolina and of what he considered the unsurpassed opportunity afforded by the exposition to advertise them to the world. He said 31 foreign nations and 35 States of the Union had already accepted the invitation to participate in the exposition and estimated 20,000,000 people would be there to see what was to be seen, and a class of people that have money and intelligence and character and a class that it would be well to get interested in North Carolina.

Commissioner Olds added that North Carolina has a population of two and one-half million people while she could support a population of 10,000,000. He quoted Governor Craig as saying that North Carolina needed 500,000 new people to scatter through the fertile territories from Currituck to Cherokee, and that the exposition offered a good opportunity to attract the class of new people we desire. He quoted Dr. Seaman A. Knapp and Mr. James Wilson, late United States Secretary of Agriculture, as saying that the region within 100 miles of the Atlantic coast and between Norfolk, Va., and Jacksonville, Fla., had the greatest future before it of any part of the Union. North Carolina shares a very large part of this favored belt, he pointed out, and the paramount need is for more of the right kind of people to come in and aid in developing this great section.

State Senator J. A. Brown, of Chadbourn, a prominent member of the State commission, appointed by Governor Craig, also spoke in strong terms concerning the importance and necessity of a North Carolina exhibit. President C. C. Hook, of the Greater Charlotte Club, introduced our Eastern Carolina man as one who knew the varied resources of the State and who was the pioneer in bringing to the State 1,500 thrifty homeseekers who settled around Chadbourn and remained there to develop it into one of the most productive sections of the State. Mr. Brown, as usual, made an impressive speech, as also did Mr. Leonard Tufts, the Bostonian who made Southern Pines and Pinehurst and who was enabled to speak on strong lines of his own knowledge of the importance of advertising the State. A dozen or more telling speeches were made, and Charlotte followed them up by setting the pace for the State in this matter of a North Carolina exhibit.

The South Carolina commissioners are now working successfully on a plan to raise $50,000 for a South Carolina exhibit, and all the South Atlantic States have some kind of plan by which they hope to secure publicity for the advantages of the respective States. Let North Carolina put her best foot forward in this matter, and have an exhibit that will make her people proud and prove of value in giving world-wide publicity to the State's resources.

There is an old saying, still holding good today, to the effect that "beauty is only skin deep." At the same time that is deep a plenty to get a man into more hot water than he can get out of without help.

People who think they know everything have to acknowledge the fact that a Chinaman puts it all over them when it comes to reading such an insignificant thing as a laundry ticket.

DEMOCRATIC PROSPERITY.

We observe that Republican papers are now saying that "the country is going ahead in spite of but not on account of the aid of the Democrats." We always had the same idea when Republicans claimed credit for prosperity, and the whole truth is that only special interests are helped or hurt by party legislation. Republican legislation made certain interests exceedingly prosperous by indirectly taxing the people for their benefit. As a matter of course, that ought to make any aided interest prosperous, but Democrats think those heretofore pampered interests ought to do a little shifting for themselves and get some prosperity of their own without being aided by law to get it out of the people.

Nobody can have the slightest objection to the prosperity of any interest, but there is serious objection to making an everlasting cinch for them by levying tariffs with the special purpose of enabling them to exploit the people. Republican tariffs hurt the people by enabling protected intertests to fleece them more than was necessary, but it is quite possible that the Democratic tariff in a few instances may either aid or injure some special interest by means of the free list or some very low tariff rates. However, since the Democratic tariff is levied in the interest of the people and not for any single interest, any and all inequalities can be and will be adjusted in the next Democratic tariff bill.

Meanwhile, if any trust, or combine, or monopoly is getting the goat of the people at the present time, the victims know that they are not operating under laws passed for the fell purpose of enabling them to get theirs. Also, meanwhile, the Democratic Congress is having a hard time to get on the statute books the anti-trust measure which President Wilson is satisfied will further protect the people from the made rich class.

It is quite apparent that the people are still bearing burdens made possible under a pernicious system built up under years of Republican administration, but if they ever expect to get complete or permanent relief, they will have to keep the Democrats in power till they gradually adjust matters.

It is hardly reasonable to expect any obnoxious or intolerable system of fifty years standing to be rooted out in two years or even in four years. However, the longer the Democrats are in power, the more assurance will the people have that popular interests and not special interests will be the aim of the government.

Finally, if the Democrats are to be denied any credit for even possible or incidental prosperity, we insist that they should be given credit for being on such good terms with it that it will dare to come along under a Democratic administration. So long as Republicans used to claim all the prosperity and disown all the panics and depressions during Republican days, the Democrats have the right to claim credit for the fact that prosperity is just as liable to butt in on a Democratic administration as a panic was to become identified with Republican administrations. The 1907 panic goes by the name of a Republican President whose front name also was given to all the toy bears in those memorable and disastrous days.

THE SOUTH'S TWO-CROP ADVANTAGES A BLESSING.

The Rock Hill Herald estimates that the recent disastrous hail storm in York county destroyed crops to the value of a million dollars. Stones of immense size came down in avalanches and on one plantation 12 head of cattle were beaten to death. Of course, the cotton and other crops were literally wiped out. The track of the ice fall was six miles wide and it extended from the North Carolina line for a distance of at least 30 miles.

With the crops absolutely destroyed, the farmers in the disaster area had all their season's efforts and expense turned into naught. There was disappointment but not despair, for they set to work immediately to plant other crops. Many of the farmers are independent and can help themselves, but others who are not so fortunate will be aided by the merchants and bankers of Rock Hill.

Of course, it is too late for another cotton crop, but there are other money crops which can be planted in plenty of time for a good fall harvest. Thousands of acres will be planted in potatoes and forage crops, and there are many products which can be produced in great abundance before frost. The only trouble is a lack of seed but prompt steps have been taken to remedy that drawback as fast as possible.

The Southern farmer's advantage is that because of the long growing seasons he can plant other crops if one fails. Energy and industry is all that is needed, and if the hail storm in York county teaches the farmers to diversify it may be a blessing in disguise.

THE KINDERGARTEN CRITICS.

President Wilson is no fighting man. While jingoes wanted him to send the American army to Mexico to get Huerta's goat, the President went to work and froze him out by making it impossible for him to get financial support for his old dictatorship.

Some men depended on fighting to win. Wilson depended on wisdom. Those loud-mouthed critics of Wilson's watchful waiting way should hunt up the kindergarten class and take their position at the foot. Don't ever match coins with a school teacher to find out whether he or you shall be kept in.

While Professor Wilson's critics had no idea what "X" stands for and were merely figuring on his failure to work out a problem, the school teacher worked out the sum of elimination. Now, will the boobs be good?

With the glowing accounts of magnificent crop prospects all over this section of the Carolinas, it is rather distressing to note the necessity for the introduction of bills in Congress by South Carolina congressmen for relief of the farmers in Spartanburg, Laurens and York counties in that State on account of hail and wind storm damage early this month. One or two counties in North Carolina have also suffered from storms, but it appears, nothing like to the extent which the Palmetto growers have suffered.

Evidently the Washington Post can't stand for the Democratic administration because it does things differently from the way the Republicans used to do them.

CURRENT COMMENT.

How many miles of good roads would we now have in North Carolina if we had held our hands and waited for State or Federal assistance?—Durham Herald.

That report of the Inter-State Commerce Commission was calculated to squeeze some of the water out of New Haven stock. So there was no wonder that the stock reached a new low record after the report was made public.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Some interesting facts might be disclosed if we had a commission to ascertain just who is paying their just proportion of the taxes and who is not. The trouble would be in finding politicians with sufficient nerve to tackle the job.—Durham Herald.

"What would be the result if every bale of cotton in South Carolina had a vote in the primary?" asks The Columbia State. Almost anything would be an improvement in the electorate of that State, judging from primaries in the past.—Greensboro Record.

Down with predatory wealth! We move that hereafter any gentleman accused of having accumulated more than 35 cents be subjected to a senatorial quizzing before he is allowed to accept any governmental position higher than a fourth-class postmastership. Only thus can the purity of our civil service be maintained.—Greensboro News.

The Democratic committee of the Third Congressional district, which has arranged a primary to settle the contest between Thomas, of Newbern, and Hood, of Goldsboro, has called on each of the candidates for $1,000 for the expenses of the primary. The amount named is beyond reason. A most important matter to be considered in connection with a State-wide primary law is a provision limiting the amount of money to be expended. The use of money in primaries and elections in this State has become a scandal. The electorate is being corrupted and demoralized.—Statesville Landmark.

The Newton Enterprise has word from three Catawba county boys who went West to help harvest the wheat crop to the effect that their efforts in cleaning up the wheat fields has reduced the cost of flour to such an extent that a merchant out there can sell a sack for 50 cents and then have left a profit of 35 cents on the deal. This may be a little bit exaggerated, but the fact is that the price of flour is coming down. The Enterprise says wheat has already dropped to 90 cents at the mills in Catawba county "and the prediction is it will go to 75 cents." The Enterprise finds that flour is coming down in proportion and calls for "cheap meat next." If the farmers of the country would tackle hog raising like they did wheat growing, there is no doubt of the fact that cheaper meat would be soon coming along.—Charlotte Observer.

The grim old philosopher of the Wilmington Star puts it down this way and it weighs about right: "Getting too gay in politics as well as in society is what spoils everything. People in society can get along nicely without imagining they are in Paris, and they can enjoy a fair brand of politics without trying to keep up with South Carolina, Georgia or Kansas, not to say New York, where first one boss and then another is bent on putting each other out of business." Of course, here in North Carolina we have a few tango artists who do the stunt as though no one were looking; we have a few ladies who wore the slit skirt and the X-ray skirt; we have a few old lobsters and a few old lobsterettes—but for the most part few of us are gay. In our politics we have Aus Watts and he stands pat—and we have a few ultra progressives who call a meeting with red ink and swear a thousand likely souls were present when it was a scant one hundred; we have lots of things only so-so—but so many first-class; so much progress; so much business; such a splendid lot of old time, pure good citizens in North Carolina, that these few who get a little gay amount to but very little.—Fairbrother's Everything.

FAST TRAIN SERVICE TO NORTH IS LIKELY

Tentative Proposition Agreed Upon Yesterday.

The question of better through passenger train service to the North from Wilmington was still further considered at a conference of the Traffic Committee of the Chamber of Commerce with Passenger Traffic Manager W. J. Craig, of the Atlantic Coast Line, in the rooms of the Chamber yesterday at noon. A tentative proposition to the operating officials of the road was agreed to, which would involve the elimination of Trains 99 and 91 between Wilmington and Goldsboro and a change of the schedule of the morning northbound train to about 7 A. M., instead of 8:30 A. M., and it is expected that something definite will be reached within a short time.

The proposition contemplates the operation of a through train with modern accommodations leaving Wilmington about 9 P. M. daily and reaching Washington in the morning, shortening up the trip between Wilmington and the North considerably and providing a train in keeping with the progressive policy of the Atlantic Coast Line on its main arteries of travel. No. 90, which is the 3:40 A. M. train out of Wilmington, daily except Monday, would be taken off and in its place the train which now leaves at 8:30 A. M., would be made to leave not later than 7 A. M. The new train leaving at 9 o'clock at night would be operated on a fast schedule—or, rather, as fast as is compatible with safety on the Wilmington & Weldon branch—allowing only eight stops between Wilmington and Rocky Mount.

The matter has been in the hands of the Traffic Committee, of which Mr. J. A. Taylor is chairman, for some time, but until yesterday nothing definite as to a proposition to the operating officials had been reached with Mr. Craig. At the meeting yesterday Chairman Taylor presided and there were present of the committee Mr. Taylor, Mr. J. G. McCormick, Mr. C. J. Becker, Mr. H. E. Boney and Mr. H. B. Branch, secretary of the Chamber.

Chairman Taylor and members of the committee informally discussed with Mr. Craig the matter of a downtown ticket office of the Coast Line, rather suggesting a union agency. While nothing definite was reached, Mr. Craig stated that the matter would be given due consideration and it will likely be taken up later.

Secretary Branch reported to the committee that very good progress was being made in the negotiations with the Southern Railway to provide through Pullman accommodations from Columbia, S. C., and in connection with the Atlantic Coast Line, from Wilmington to Asheville, N. C. The matter is being pushed very vigorously with officials of the Southern and early and favorable action is expected.

"A REASONABLE TIME."

Justice Harriss Renders Decision for Plaintiff in Case.

Justice Harriss yesterday was confronted with the puzzling question of what is a "reasonable length of time." This came before him in the form of an action brought by R. Q. Brown, of Mt. Olive, against the Atlantic Coast Line in which the plaintiff asked for the payment for goods lost by the railroad. The defendant refused to do so because the claim had not been filed within a "reasonable length of time" after the expiration of the four months as stipulated in the standard bill of lading. Justice Harriss decided in favor of the plaintiff and the railroad served notice of appeal.

This is said to be one of the first cases brought against the railroad to resist the regulation recently adopted of not paying claims for freight that are not filed in a "reasonable length of time." Paul D. Satchwell, Esq., represents the plaintiff.

Sharks at Southport.

This week's Southport News has the following of local interest: "If there is anything in the theory that there is plenty of fish where sharks abound, the harbor here must be full of fish. Shark fishing off the docks has given some rich sport to two men, Messrs. Charles Cotton, who hunts any and everything, ashore or afloat, and F. J. LaClare, who repairs time pieces. Of the two men, LaClare caught three sharks within 24 hours, and one about eight feet long and weighing 250 pounds, this big one being taken on a small line, and the efforts of five persons were needed to haul the shark out. The other sharks would look large except by comparison with the big fellow."

PINE MEN HAVE MEETING

With lumbermen in attendance from North and South Carolina and Virginia, the midsummer meeting of the North Carolina Pine Association was held at the Oceanic Hotel yesterday. The meeting was largely informal, the principal feature being interesting addresses by Mr. A. T. Swan, of the United States Department of Agriculture, and Mr. R. L. Gilliam, of South Carolina. The social side is usually emphasized at the summer meetings of the association and it is for this reason that they are usually held at Wrightsville Beach, where the surroundings are especially suited to this

Only one session was held yesterday, this being called to order at 11 o'clock in the assembly room of the Oceanic Hotel by President Nathan O'Berry, of Goldsboro. Mr. W. B. Roper, of Norfolk, Va., secretary and treasurer, kept a record of the proceedings.

Mr. A. T. Swann, an expert from the United States Department of Forestry, made an instructive address on ring inspection for structural timbers. Mr. R. L. Gillam, of South Carolina, spoke on kiln drying of gum. He had a miniature dry kiln for demonstration purposes and by this means was able to make his address unusually interesting and instructive. There were several other informal addresses on subjects of particular interest to the lumbermen.

A feature of the meeting was the attendance of a committee from the recently organized Carolina Air Dried Pine Association, the committee having been appointed by President W. H. McElwee at the recent meeting upon invitation from President O'Berry, of the North Carolina Association. The committee was composed of Messrs. W. S. Wilson, W. F. Lattimore, C. B. Alford, O. D. Barber, L. James, B. B. Turner, J. K. Barrow, W. B. Gettys, Howard White and W. H. McElwee.

The purpose of the visit of the committee was to inquire into the advisability of consolidating the two associations. Committees were appointed to take the matter under advisement. The committee from the Air Dried Association will make report at a meeting of this organization which will be held in Raleigh next week. The plans discussed contemplate either a closer co-operation between the two organizations or their consolidation.

After some discussion the question of the adoption of the southwestern standards of face measurements and thickness for dressing timber was postponed for further consideration at the next meeting of the Pine association.

Practically all the lumbermen in attendance upon the meeting will remain over Sunday at the beach.

CHARGED WITH LOTTERY.

Trial of Men Who Sold Furniture on Installment Set for Tuesday.

The trial of Joseph Leach and Van Collum, two white men, charged with having sold furniture on an installment plan in violation of the laws prohibiting gambling, has been set by Justice Harriss for Tuesday. Both men were arrested Thursday by Constable Davis and being unable to furnish bond had to spend Thursday night in the county jail. They are employed by the Mutual Supply Co., of Richmond, Va., and yesterday morning this concern wired $200 in cash for their bond and they were liberated.

According to the plan as outlined by several persons who had agreed to buy furniture from them, they were selling collections of furniture for $17.50 each. This was to be paid for at the rate of 25 cents a week. However, the company, according to the contract entered into an agreement that each week for advertising purposes they would distribute a number of these collections of furniture and the lucky ones would then cease to pay their installments. All were assured of getting a supply of furniture when they had paid the $17.50, and it is claimed by the concern doing business that this eliminates the chance in the transaction.

Makes Trip in Six Hours.

Mr. F. B. Sheetz, of Fayetteville, made the trip from his home town to Wilmington on his motorcycle on Thursday in the record-breaking time of six hours. Considering the roads which are sandy and for the most part unimproved, the average of approximately 15 miles an hour made by Mr. Sheetz is remarkable. Mr. Sheetz is a brother of Mr. Silas Sheetz, of this city, and he will spend several days on a visit to him before returning to his home.

STATE SHOOT NEXT WEEK

Many Sportsmen to Attend Big Trap Tournament at Wrightsville Beach July 21-22.

Shotgun experts from the amateur and professional ranks all over North Carolina and from a number of other States are already arriving for the annual North Carolina State shoot, to be held at Wrightsville Beach next Tuesday and Wednesday under the auspices of the New Hanover Gun Club.

A number of the sportsmen are already guests at the Oceanic Hotel, which will be headquarters for those attending the meet, and some of them participated in the weekly shoot of the New Hanover Gun Club held over the traps at the beach yesterday afternoon, L. Clayton Grant, Esq., of this city, was high gun with a score of 94 out of 100, and Mr. J. B. Pennington, of Tarboro, was second with 92.

The feature of the shoot next week will be the Inter-State Association Amateur State Championship race, in which only the amateur sportsmen who are residents of North Carolina will be allowed to compete for the trophies and prize money. This event is the first on the programme, and shooting will start promptly Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock. It will be a 100-bird race, divided into four 25-target events. The entrance fee is $5 and added money is $15, the money to be divided into five equal moneys of 20 per cent. each. Handsome trophies will be awarded the winners of the first seven places in the amateur State championship event, and $50 in cash will go to the winner, or to the runner-up in the event the winner is not able to attend the Grand American Handicap tournament, conditional upon the winner or runner-up making entry and competing in the national amateur championship event of the Grand American Handicap tournament.

In addition to the State event on Tuesday, there will be eight regular events of 20 targets each. The entrance fee in each event will $2 and added money will be $10, the money to be divided 30, 25, 25 and 20 per cent.

On Wednesday there will be 13 regular events, under the same rules as those of the former day.

Contestants will be allowed to shoot for targets only in any and all events, and $5 is guaranteed the high amateur each day, also $5 to the high amateur over all targets. While nonresidents of the State are not allowed to win the State championship, they are allowed to shoot in this event.

The shooting grounds will be open Monday afternoon for practice, shooting to begin promptly at 1 o'clock.

EXPRESS SERVICE ON SEABOARD TRAIN NO. 19.

Mr. John W. Plummer Wins Fight for an Early Express Out of City.

Through the efforts of Mr. John W. Plummer, a well known local ice cream manufacturer and confectioner, the Southern Express Company will establish a service on the early morning Seaboard Air Line train No. 19, leaving the city at 5 A. M. The new service is effective next Monday, July 20th, and will be handled for the time being in the baggage car, until the business justifies an express car.

Mr. Plummer has been fighting for an express service on this train for some months, and he received a letter yesterday from Mr. E. E. Hunter, division freight agent of the Seaboard, to the effect that on and after July 20th the Seaboard would handle express on their train No. 19, leaving Wilmington at 5 A. M., on the baggage car, provided such an arrangement would be suitable to the express company. Mr. Plummer also was notified by the express company during the day that the plan suggested by the Seaboard would be agreeable, and that it would establish an express service on Train No. 19.

The new service will be of notable benefit to local bakeries and ice cream factories, especially, and will enable them to compete with Richmond companies that have been getting the business along the Seaboard even as far down as Lumberton and nearby points, because of the fact that the first train on this line carrying an express car did not leave the city until 3 P. M.

DROWNED MAN FOUND.

Body of Ah Sow Discovered Floating on Cape Fear Yesterday.

The body of An Sow, the Chinese fireman on the British steamer Kylestrome, who was drowned in the Cape Fear Wednesday evening, was found floating on the water only a few yards north of where he went down yesterday morning. The body was turned over to Mr. W. E. Yopp to be prepared for interment. The body was floating on the water opposite the Clyde Line terminals near the foot of Chesnut street.

The interment was in Bellevue cemetery. Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, pastor of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church, conducted the services. A number of the Chinese sailors on board the ship accompanied the remains and following the services, conducted a weird ceremony that was wholly unintelligible to American ears.

The arrangements for the funeral and interment were made by Mr. Henry Whyte, the agent to whom the ship was consigned. An inquest was deemed unnecessary by Coroner John J. Fowler.

Side Collision With Auto.

A northbound city car of the Tidewater Power Co., shortly before 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, nearly in front of the postoffice, on Front street, "sideswiped" the Chalmers automobile of Mr. Henry Heyer, which was proceeding slowly in the same direction and just in front of the trolley car. The automobile was jammed against the roadster of Mr. J. Haughton James which was standing against the curb on the same side of the street. Both cars were slightly damaged, that of Mr. Heyer the worst. It was towed to the Pickard-Bleecker garage on Third street for repairs. Mr. Heyer was driving his car and Wm. M. Bellamy, Esq., was also in the machine for a short trip up the street.

Foreman of Central Fire Station Died Yesterday After Illness of Several Months.

Mr. Peter N. Fick, Sr., for 29 years a brave and courageous fireman in the city of Wilmington, and for 17 years of that time the foreman of the Central fire station, died at his home, No. 305 South Sixth street, yesterday, at 12:40 o'clock, after an illness of several months. While his condition had been serious for several weeks, and it was known that the end was near, the announcement nevertheless came as a great shock to a host of friends in this city. All the members of his family were with him when he died.

His family were devoted to him and were overcome with grief. No arrangements for the funeral had been made last evening.

The news of his passing spread rapidly among his friends and neighbors, and hundreds called during the afternoon and evening to offer condolence and sympathy to the bereaved family.

Mr. Fick was a native of Otterndorf, Province of Hanover, Germany, and was born on February 12, 1853. He was, therefore, in his 62nd year of his age. He spent his early life in that country, but when a young man, on account of the greater opportunities, came to America. He came to Hoboken, N. J., in 1876, and resided there for four years. It was in this city that he met and married Miss Elise Schwartz, who survives him.

In 1881 they came to Wilmington, and soon after his arrival he became a member of the Howard Relief Company. On many occasions, he rendered heroic service as a fireman. Possessing marked executive ability, he was well equipped for the position of foreman at the Central station, to which he was appointed 17 years ago, when the paid fire department was organized.

On account of his fearless disposition and his many fine traits of character, he was greatly admired and loved by his comrades.

Fire Chief Schnibben stated yesterday that he had never had a better man in his department.

Mr. Fick was a faithful and devoted member of St. Paul's Lutheran church, and also of St. Paul's Christian Association. He was also a member of the Knights of Pythias, the Woodmen of the World and of the Germania Club.

Surviving him besides his wife are nine children, as follows: Mr. P. N. Fick, Jr., Macon, Ga.; Mr. H. M. Fick, Harrisburg, Pa.; Mrs. L. M. Harvey, Mr. F. D. Fick, Miss Marie Louise Mr. F. B. Fick, Miss Marie Louise Fick, Mr. George H. Fick and Miss Anna Margarent Fick, of Wilmington. One sister, Mrs. Fred. Geiser, of Hoboken, N. J., also survives him. All of the children are here with their mother. They will have the tender sympathy of many friends.

THE ROSE MAIDEN GIVEN BY SUMMER SCHOOL CHORUS.

Chapel Hill, N. C., July 17.—The Rose Maiden, by Cowen, given by the Summer School Chorus Wednesday night was an artistic triumph. This was the third annual entertainment given by the volunteer organization. Prof. Gustav Hagedorn, dean of the department of music at Meredith College, who has charge of all musical matters at the Summer School, together with Mrs. Hagedorn, has trained the company. Mrs. Hagedorn also acted as accompanist. A large share of the credit for the affair is due her.

The four principals were supported by the chorus of 60 voices, 40 female and 20 male. Miss Margaret Faucette, recently elected teacher of voice at Chowan College, sang the soprano parts. She has a well trained voice and has perfect control in the most difficult interpretations.

The alto, Miss Katherine Campbell Johnson, is a recent graduate of Meredith. She has a voice of unusual richness and color. More perhaps than any other she threw herself into the spirit of the cantata and gave a very feeling interpretation of her part.

Mr. Epps, the basso, and Mr. Henry Meeks, the tenor, are both University students. While Mr. Epps is in the Summer School Mr. Meeks made a special trip from his home in Nashville to take part in the presentation. Mr. Meeks sang before Caruso at Atlanta during the grand opera season there this spring and so impressed the great singer that he offered to take him to Europe and see that he is given the best training possible. Mr. Meeks and Mr. Epps drew frequent and enthusiastic applause. It goes without saying that the work of Director Hagedorn was all that could be desired.

SOME SOCIAL EVENTS IN TOWN OF WARSAW.

Warsaw, N. C., July 17.—The members of the Methodist Sunday school enjoyed a picnic at Cooper's Mill on Wednesday afternoon. The children enjoying the swimming, which was also indulged in by some of the older members. Boating also formed one of the principal pastimes. A dainty dinner was provided by the ladies, which was spread on the banks of the pond, fried chicken being the "long suit."

The James Kenan Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy met with Miss Ella Brown on Wednesday afternoon. On arrival the guests were conducted into the tastefully decorated hall where grape juice was served. An interesting business session was held, after which Miss Margaret pierce, president pro tem. for Mrs. W. L. Hill, read an interesting paper followed by Father Ryan's selection "Land Without Ruins." After the business meeting was concluded a very enjoyable social hour was spent playing rook. Miss Sallie Hill scoring the highest score was awarded a portrait of the different flags of the various nations with a large Confederate flag in the center, which was indeed a work of art, being painted by Miss Brown, who is a noted painter. The score cards were hand painted with a Confederate flag on one side, and bearing the following verse on the other: "Here's to Dixie's Heroes Crowned With Glory Though They Fell and Here's to Her Tattered Banner, the Flag We Love So Well."

At the close of the programme an elegant ice course was served. The rook club was revived, with much enthusiasm, and will hold its next regular meeting with Mrs. C. P. Carroll, on next Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Robert T. Small, southern manager of the Associated Press, with headquarters in Atlanta, Ga., is a guest at the Oceanic Hotel for a few days. Mr. Small is not only a most capable newspaper man, but is also a man of most pleasing personality.

An exhibition of fireworks will be given by the Tidewater Power Company next Thursday night. The display will take place back of Lumina near the sound, and can be witnessed from the Lumina verandas. The exhibition will no doubt be equal to any of the former displays.

Several hundred people came in yesterday over the Atlantic Coast Line and the Seaboard Air Line from Georgia and Alabama. The hotels and cottages were filled to overflowing. Smith, and son, Mr. Burton Smith, and Miss Sallie Young, who have been at the Seashore Hotel, Wrightsville, for two weeks, leave for home tomorrow."

The Copelia Ballet is the name of the new exhibition dance that will be presented for the first time by Miss Chandler and Mr. West at Lumina tonight. Like the Barcarolle Waltz, which was given at Lumina last Saturday night, this dance will be performed on a canvass cloth placed upon the ballroom floor. In this dance Miss Chandler has an opportunity to exhibit her skill as a toe dancer, at which style of dancing she is quite an expert.

A special train of six solid Pullmans arrived over the Seaboard from Atlanta yesterday at noon. There were 170 passengers, most of them coming to spend ten days at the beach while others will spend the summer at this popular resort. The train was in charge of Mr. Fred Geissler, assistant general passenger agent of the Seaboard, with headquarters in Atlanta. The special train was run ahead of the regular train from Atlanta. Quite a number of visitors came in on the latter.

Preceding the exercises of "Atlanta Night" Miss Chandler and Mr. West, the professionals at Lumina, last evening gave a beautiful exhibition of the maxixe with spot light effect, all the other lights in the hall being turned out. The spotlight of varied colors followed the dancers around the hall and the effect was very charming. Both dancers were costumed in pure white. Light effects will be used in future in all the special dances at Lumina, permanent arrangements being made for this feature for the remainder of the season.

Judge R. C. Allen, of Muscogee, Okla., who has been spending a few days at the Northrop cottage, was called to Washington, D. C., yesterday on professional business. Judge Allen, who is a native of Bladen county, is now attorney for the Creek nation of Indians. Since leaving his native State he has achieved notable success in his chosen profession. For the merry week-end at gay Lumina, another big offering in movies has been booked, a programme that will appeal to every visitor to Lumina, who can find some part of it that is especially interesting to them.

The bill is headed by a mammoth two-reel Lubin drama, "His Best Friend," which has been widely heralded as one of the biggest photoplays produced by the Lubin Players. It possesses that human interest touch that makes it appeal to everyone, and is a great big story, with not a dull moment from beginning to end.

Another one of those popular educational features, will be a Lubin release, "Hydraulic Works," giving an insight into the methods employed in utilizing hydraulic power for various purposes.

"Atlanta Night" at Lumina last evening attracted a very large number of people to the pavilion, but unfortunately the number of Atlantians dancing was not as large as expected. However, the event proved most interesting and was a pretty compliment to the hundreds of visitors each season from the Gate City. Atlanta people were given exclusive use of the floor from 9:15 to 9:45, forming the line for the grand march and each dancer being given a favor in the form of an Atlanta pennant. Prizes were given for the best dancers and Miss Annie Willy Pierce and Mr. Frank Stephens won the first for the one-step and another for the hesitation went to Miss Mary E. Evins and Mr. Torrey Wyley. These prizes were five pound boxes of Nunnaly's candies, these being products of an Atlanta manufacturer. Judges of the dancing were Miss Chandler, Mr. West and Mr. Richardson.

WOULD LIKE TO SEE OLD DANCES RESTORED.

The following statement was handed to The Star yesterday by the spokesman for a party of young people who have been considering the advisability of asking the Tidewater Power Company to restore the old waltz and two-step at Lumina, or at least to give these dances an equal representation with the newer modern dances:

"Among the young people of Wilmington, there are a great many who are averse to the new or popular dances, and it is gratifying to many to know that the Tidewater Power Company has under consideration the advisability of re-establishing the old waltz and two-step at Lumina, or to alternate with the old and new dances.

"This action on the part of the management of the Tidewater Power Company will not only operate as a means of increasing its traffic to the beach, but will contribute to the enjoyment of those who do not favor the popular dances."

Thursday's Greensboro Record: "Mr. Will Preyer, who is at Wrightsville Beach on a house party given by Miss Florence Potter, was the hero of a thrilling experience Wednesday morning. Mr. Preyer, with his brother, Mr. Alleana Preyer, and sisters, Misses Helen and Myrtle Preyer, and Miss Norman and Mr. Edson, of New York, were out in a motor boat headed for the ocean when the engine suddenly went dead, leaving the party adrift on a heavy, choppy sea, a long distance from shore and drifting toward the ocean. Investigation showed that the engine had sprung a leak and all the gasoline had run out. There was nothing to do but swim for help and this Mr. Preyer did. The sea was extremely rough and the distance long, but there was no other way out of it, so the young man went over the side and struck out for shore.

"While Mr. Preyer was going for help the others in the party were having their hands full to keep the boat from being swamped. The waves were high and broke over the boat, drenching the occupants.

"After a swim which taxed the strength of the swimmer to the utmost, Mr. Preyer reached shore and succeeded in getting a small power-driven fishing boat to return with him for the rest of the party. It was no easy matter to get the heavily loaded boat back to shore and the deed was accomplished only after a strenuous fight with the waves. The whole party was landed soaking wet but otherwise no worse off for the experience."

DIED.

PETER N. FICK, Sr., aged 61 years, at his home, No. 305 South Sixth street, at 12:40 P. M. yesterday. Funeral announcement later. (Advertisement.)

COTTON MARKET IRREGULAR

As a Result of Confused Reports as to Action of Lancashire Spinners. Prices Advance.

New York, July 17.—Confusing reports as to the action of Lancashire spinners with reference to short time proposals, seemed largely responsible for the irregularity of today's cotton market. Some of the earlier cables created an impression here that the Manchester section had agreed to curtail production, but later advices stated that the only action had been preparatory to securing a vote on the proposition and the market became firm in the late trading with the close steady at a net advance of 14 to 16 points.

The crop report of a local authority placing the condition at only 78.8 per cent against the report of 79 per cent toward the end of June was doubtless the factor on the opening advance of from 8 to 11 points. The active months sold 8 to 12 points net higher right after the call on covering and bull support. The deterioration shown in the condition figures, however, was east of the river where droughty conditions have recently been relieved by good rains, and the market met considerable cotton on the advance.

Offerings increased following the first reports from Manchester and prices reacted to within 3 or 4 points of last night's closing figures, but soon steadied, while demand became more active in the late trading on covering by early sellers, spot house buying and reports of hot winds in the southwest. New crop positions closed within a point or two of the best. The week-end figures made rather a bearish showing but seemed to attract no special attention. General business was very quiet during the greater part of the day, and much of the trading was supposed to be in the way of evening up for over the week-end, or pending a better view of weather and crop conditions in the Southwest.

Cotton futures closed steady:

WEEKLY COTTON REPORT

Market Has Been Quiet and Fluctuations More or Less Irregular. Conflicting Reports.

New York, July 17.—Cotton has been quiet during the past week and fluctuations have been more or less irregular as a result of conflicting crop and trade reports. Uncertainty as to the effect and probable form of future legislation which Washington advices claim may be enacted during the present session of Congress has probably had a tendency to restrict general business. Traders also appear to be hesitating between the gloomy reports of prevailing conditions in mill circles as compared with predictions of gradually improved trade conditions under the influence of large grain crops, and between an optimistic view of the crop outlook east of the river as to apprehensions of drought damage in the Southwest.

The report of the census bureau indicating a considerable falling off in domestic mill consumption for the month of June as compared with previous months this season smaller weekly spinners takings and the continued agitation of short time proposals abroad, naturally tended to encourage a bearish view of the immediate trade situation, but for the ten months of this season domestic mill consumption is still well ahead of last year. Some of the most bullishly disposed traders think poor trade complaints are partly inspired by small stocks in the hands of spinners and a desire to make a better buying basis for raw material.

BRADSTREET'S TRADE REVIEW.

New York, July 17.—Bradstreet's will say tomorrow:

"Reports this week spell betterment, moderate in some instances, but totaling sufficient to deserve mention. Recent rains have fallen in some districts, the general crop situation has improved rather than retrograded, as is not unusual in July, clearance sales and hot weather have enlarged the turn-over of summer goods and reports from the iron and steel and allied lines, such as agricultural implements, car building and repairing, show a continuance of the improved conditions recently noted.

There is evidence also that optimistic sentiment as to the future of trade and proof that the improvement is not entirely a matter of sentiment is had in the reports of a record movement of winter wheat to market, despite some holding by farmers not satisfied with prices in a larger volume of sales and higher prices for raw wool and in good reports from the automobile trade.

That conditions are still not satisfactory in many lines is proved by the advices that industrial output is still restricted and the confused weak or irregular stock market shows the prevalence of many unsettling influences still in commerce and finance.

Bank clearings for the week ending July 16 were $3,171,832,000, an increase of 4.2 per cent over last year, wheat exports 5,962,000 bushels against 3,599,406 last year; business failures 304 against 231.

LIQUIDATION IN STOCKS

Was General and the Outstanding Feature of the Market Yesterday. Railroads Lead.

New York, July 17.—General liquidation was an outstanding feature of the stock market today. The most prominent movement centered about low priced railroad shares. Missouri, Kansas & Texas, common and preferred; Denver & Rio Grande, preferred; Southern, Erie, St. Louis & Southwestern preferred, and Seaboard Air Line receded from 1 to over 4 points.

Later the selling embraced a number of stocks of greater prominence, including the Anthracite shares, St. Paul, Pennsylvania and Baltimore & Ohio.

New Haven was less conspicuous today, but its course was uncertain as a result of over night developments connected with the road's future. An abrupt decline in the shares, was later regained and final dealings were attended by a general rally.

Bonds were mostly heavy after initial firmness. Total sales, par value, aggregated $1,675,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

DUPLIN FARMER ATTRACTS ATTENTION IN CANADA.

Item Published in N. C. Papers Read in the Dominion—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warsaw, N. C., July 17.—An interesting story of the far-reaching powers of the North Carolina daily papers has just been learned here. The morning papers dated the latter part of May, published an item from this place telling of Charles Johnson raising five crops on a quarter-acre plot of land. This story was copied by the Boston Herald on June 6th, and an inquiry has been received here from a party in Canada, wishing to know if this item was true. It is true, and instead of making five crops, it looks now as if six will be obtained. Three crops have already been harvested, and the fourth one is now growing, and will be off the land in plenty of time for two other crops to mature by January 1st.

L. P. Best has let a contract to J. R. Barden, a local contractor, to build a large new brick store building on Main street, next door to his present store, and of the same size. His present building is one of the most attractive in town, and the addition being the same, a beautiful business house will be the result.

Gordon B. Cooper, a prominent civil engineer, who has just returned from a trip through Sampson county, reports a large increase in the tobacco acreage there. He states that last year about 350 acres were planted, and that this year approximately 2,000 acres have been planted. The sale of this weed will be divided between Clinton and this market, with the former getting a small portion the most.

The first permanent moving picture show that has ever been operated opened last night. W. W. Wilson, the proprietor, has remodeled his building on Main street, and equipped it with every modern convenience known to this class of business. One of the principal features being a latest model Edison machine, and as this town has no electric plant, and Mr. Wilson has installed a dynamo of his own, it is causing some cupiosity.

Rural route No. 1, from this office has been increased from 21 miles to 24 miles, making it a standard route. It now serves 169 families. The increase in distance was made yesterday.

A council of the Junior Order United American Mechanics was installed here last night, 14 members of the Goldsboro council being present to install the 30 members, with which this council opened. All of the regular officers were installed, and everything pertaining to the installation was finished, leaving the order here in good shape to start.

DUPLIN COUNTY CROPS IN FINE CONDITION.

Sampson Huckleberry Crop the Biggest in Years.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warsaw, N. C., July 17.—Reports coming from all sections of this county seem to indicate that the crops are all in good condition, and that good harvests will be yielded. The corn and cotton crops are expected to be fully as much, if not a little more than the usual harvest, while the tobacco crop is the only one that will not be fully up to the standard, and this crop is expected to yield 90 per cent. or more of the usual harvest. The farmers are in unusually good spirits, for where a short time ago it seemed that their efforts had been destroyed by the dry weather, the recent rains have restored the crops to a much better degree than it seemed was possible.

While the farmers are making arrangements to harvest their crops, the busines men are making preparations for marketing them. A few of the farmers have erected prize houses on their farms. A new tobacco warehouse has just been completed, which is 100 feet by 200 feet; the one which has been used for several seasons has recently been enlarged so that it is nearly twice the size that it was. W. L. Hill is erecting a large cotton gin, which wil be placed in operation as soon as this season's crop is harvested, and every thing will be in readiness for a good business this fall.

The huckleberry (or "big Sampson blues," as they are most commonly known), crop is proving to be one of the biggest gathered in recent years, the woods being literally full of them. It is claimed that Sampson county, and the sections of the other counties that immediately border on Sampson, have a complete monopoly on this berry, as the ones in other places throughout the United States cannot compare with these in size nor flavor, and it is known that they have a good reputation on the markets of the various cities, as each day these berries are being shipped by fast freight and express in vast quantities, and the prices being received are very good.

A number of nice residences are being erected here, but a scarcity of residences for rent exists, owing to the scarcity of carpenters, brick layers and other workmen. There is not a house in town for rent, and as fast as one family moves, some one else is ready to take the house left vacant. In one case recently where a family moved into a house they had built, there were twelve applications for the house they were moving out of before they had moved.

WILSON DISAPPOINTED

Her Federal Building Bill Not to be Acted Upon at This Session.

(Special Star Correspondence)

Wilson, N. C., July 16.—Considerable disappointment is felt here over the report from Congressman Kitchin that in all probability the bill providing for a Federal Court in Wilson will not be acted on by the present Congress. The real cause of disappointment is because of the consequent delay in the matter of a post office building.

The site was purchased four years ago and the building was to be erected at an early date. Then came the agitation for a Federal Court and this went on until finally the bill providing the court passed the Senate and went to the House where it has quietly reposed for several months. In the meantime Wilson is doing without adequate postoffice facilities.

FORECLOSURE SALE.

By virtue and in pursuance of the power of sale contained in a certain deed of mortgage made by A. O. Schuster and wife to J. W. Powell, Jr., and by said J. W. Powell, Jr., transferred and assigned to the Southern National Bank, the undersigned will, on Thursday, July the 30th, 1914, at twelve o'clock M., at the Court House door in the County of New Hanover, sell, at public auction, for cash, the following described property, situate in the city of Wilmington, to satisfy the debt secured by said mortgage:

These activities on the part of the American government result from a desire that when the Constitutionalists are installed in Mexico City and comply with the conditions prerequisite to formal recognition, there shall be an end to revolution in Mexico with its ever threatening international aspects.

Carranza has been informed that he must conduct his triumph temperately, that an amnesty for political offenders be declared and the rights of the clergy and other foreigners who have suffered, especially Spaniards be given due respect.

Through John R. Silliman, personal representative of President Wilson, with General Carranza, the American government is rendering its advice. To accept the suggestions from Washington, it has been pointed out, means recognition by the powers of the whole world.

General Carranza, according to Mr. Silliman, reveals friendliness to the American government and readiness to discuss peace with Carbajal.

Washington is in touch with Carbajal through his personal representative here, Jose Castellot, who declared today the relations between the two governments were very cordial. He makes his headquarters at the Mexican embassy and has the ear of Secretary Bryan.

One message from the new provisional president said he would fill none of the cabinet portfolios except the ministry of awr to direct the army.

Castellot admits that Carbajal wants to transfer his authority to Carranza immediately and that the commission of three Constitutionalist sympathizers sent to the north by Carbajal to confer with Carranza had authority to arrange for the transition. Am amnesty for political offenders and guarantees that the lives and the property of the people in the teritory controlled by the Federal government be conserved are practically the only terms which Carbajal asks.

Washington officials are predicting complete peace in Mexico in another fortnight.

Imroglio Not Solved.

London, July 17.—Commenting upon the resignation of Huerta, the morning papers give credit to President Wilson for the success of his policy, but consider that the Mexican imbroglio is in no way solved. The Chronicle reports that it is premature to describe as a triumph for Mr. Wilson. He gained his point, the paper says, but his policy has entailed an appalling amount of murder and pillage, most of which could have been avoided if he had joined Europe in recognizing Huerta.

The Daily Mail regards Huerta's resignation as granting a respite, but not a reprieve in the situation. It says, however, the world will breathe more freely at the thought that war between the United States and Mexico has been averted.

The Times considers that President Wilson never intended to elevate the rule of non-recognition applied to Huerta into a policy of universal application.

Huerta Done An Injustice.

Paris, July 17.—The retirement of Huerta is commented upon sympathetically in the French press today. The papers declare Huerta's departure from the Mexican capital is in keeping with the remarkable injustice he has been shown throughout. He leaves soon enough, so that he does not seem to fly before the Constitutionalists, they assert, and at just the right moment to obtain credit for "the elegant conduct" in handing over his power to a successor whose impartiality places above all parties the hope that peace may be established.

Moheno at Savannah.

Savannah, Ga., July 17.—V. Moheno, former Mexican minister of commerce, who passed through here tonight on his way to New York, said he hoped to enlighten the American people "on the grave injustice which President Wilson has done to Gen. Huerta." He thought the Constitutionalists would be unsuccessful in establishing a stable government in Mexico.

"General Huerta is one of the greatest men Mexico has ever seen," added Senor Moheno. "He has been misrepresented in the United States."

Carbajal Ready to Yield.

Monterey, July 16, via Laredo, Tex., July 17.—That Provisional President Carbajal is ready to yield unconditionally to the Constitutionalists is evidenced by the make-up of the special committee selected by the provisional President to confer with Carranza, Constitutionalist officials declared here today. If this were not the case, they say, the members would not have accepted their commission.

It is declared that the three commissioners are friendly with the Constitutionalist cause.

The request of Federal officers garrisoning San Luis Potosi, presented to the Constitutionalists through a committee of citizens, that they be allowed to join the Constitutionalist army with their present rank, has been refused by Gen. Carranza. Leaders declare they will not repeat the mistake of Madero in taking the enemy into their ranks.

Capt. S. G. Hopkins, of Washington, said to have been a Constitutionalist attorney in that city, today held a conference with Gen. Carranza.

Federals Evacuate Guaymas.

On Board U. S. S. California, La Paz, July 16, via wireless to San Diego, Cal., July 17.—The Federal evacuation of Guaymas is complete. The last of the garrison, long hemmed in by the Constitutionalist forces of Gen. Obregon, embarked southward tonight with their horses and accoutrements in six steamers and four towing schooners. A provisional government has been established and order prevails throughout the city.

In accordance with the armistice arranged several days ago the citizens of Guaymas were disarmed today. The Federal mines planted at strategic points on the outskirts of the city were exploded with Constitutionalist officers as witnesses.

The first act of the new administration was to relieve the starving population by the distribution and sale of foodstuffs.

The peaceful exchange of governmental authority was facilitated by Captain Magruder, of the United States cruiser Raleigh. Arrangements also were completed for the formal occupation of Guaymas by the Constitutionalists on July 18th.

Diplomatic Corps Called.

Washington, July 17.—Dispatches from the Brazilian minister that the entire diplomatic corps called at the national palace today and through the dean of the corps, the Spanish ambassador, congratulated Francisco Carbajal upon his accession to the presidency. The ambassador expressed the hope that order soon would be restored throughout the Republic.

In reply, the report said Carbajal assured the diplomats that he had assumed office only with the hope of bringing relief to his country and that nothing would be done by him to interfere with adjustment of the situation in a way satisfactory to all factions.

Huerta Says Farewell.

Mexico City, July 17.—Every representative of a foreign power received two telegrams from Gen. Huerta—one for the diplomat personally bidding him farewell and asking that he repose confidence in President Carbajal. The other was for the government represented, requesting support for the new Mexican government. The single exception was in the case of the United States.

URGE JONES TO ANSWER REPORT ON NOMINATION.

Made to Senate by Majority Members of Banking Committee.

Washington, July 17.—Democrats of the Senate banking and currency committee who favor confirmation of Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, as a member of the Federal reserve board have urged him to answer the report of the majority of the committee, which opposed his confirmation on the ground that he is a director of the International Harvester Company, which is under indictment for violation of the Sherman act.

Senators Hollis, Shafroth, Lee and Pomerene, who voted to recommend Mr. Jones' confirmation, sent a telegram and forwarded a copy of the majority report though it has not been released by the Senate. Meanwhile the minority report will be delayed and this will postpone Senate action on the nomination.

There was no official action in the Jones case during the day. Neither did the banking committee hear anything from Paul M. Warburg, of New York, whose nomination rests in a committee pigeon hole waiting for Mr. Warburg to appear for examination as to his financial affiliations.

INVESTIGATE SHOOTING AFFRAY

In Chicago Thursday Night in Which Several Were Killed.

Chicago, July 17.—The coroner's jury which today began its investigation into last night's shooting affray in the former segregated district in which one policeman was killed and three wounded, adjourned tonight to await the result of the wounds of the three detectives now in hospitals.

The jury comprised of six public school principals recommended that Fred Amort, a moral's detective, arrested on suspicion, be released on his own recognizance, pending the result of inquest.

The old South Side levee district has been transformed from a colony of immoral women to one of criminals, according to Maclay Hoyne, State's attorney, who announced he will begin a crusade against all criminals of both sexes found in the district.

STILL FIGHTING FLIES.

No Let Up in Greensboro, Even With Her Fine Record.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greensboro, N. C., July 17.—Mr. E. P. Wharton, voluntary assistant health officer without salary, is working hard these days to rid Greensboro of flies, so when Dr .W. S. Rankin, of the State Board of Health comes here to inspect the city he can make a good report of conditions. Dr. Rankin is expected at an early date.

Mr. Wharton has really worked wonders in the extermination of the fly. While there are some flies left, they are small in numbers and weak in body. The campaign will be pressed with renewed vigor for the next few days.

CANNOT PUBLISH PRICES

On Butter and Eggs and Other Produce—Injunction Granted.

Chicago, July 17.—An injunction restraining the Chicago butter and egg board from publishing prices on butter, eggs and other products was issued today by Federal Judge Landis.

In a suit filed some months ago the government charged that by publishing prices the board artifically created prices higher than the market warranted, and violated the Federal law prohibiting all acts in restraint of trade.

The suit is similar to the recent action against the Elgin Board of Trade which resulted in the entering of a decree directing that actual sales alone should be quoted and no attempt to fix prices be made.

WORKMEN RETURN TO WORK.

Greenville, S. C., July 17.—After a conference with the mill management this morning, the 750 operatives on Monaghan mills agreed to return to work Monday morning. After the resumption of work they will take up with the management the issue which last July 9 caused the employes of the weave room to walk out.

The trouble arose over a conflict in the rules of the company and the Industrial Workers of the World. Josepr J. Etter came to Greenville on Thursday to take charge of the situation for the I. W. W. He took no part in the proceedings today, it is said.

HAITI REGULARS RECAPTURE TOWN FROM REBEL FORCES.

Little Island Republic Still Alive With Revolutionists.

Cape Haitien, Haiti, July 17.—Gen. Leon Duque, with a government force today recaptured from the rebels the towns of Pere Du Midi and Milot and established communication with the column commanded by the president, which had engaged another band on the plains of Limonade.

Another force of government troops took Fort Deronville and then began its march on Ouanaminthe, the rebels' principal stronghold.

CAPTAIN WEST DIES.

Retired Marine Corps Officer Who Shot Himself.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 17.—Capt. E. E. West, retired marine corps officer who shot himself here a month ago, died at Rhea Springs this morning from uremic poison. He went to the springs ten days ago upon his release from the hospital and has been ill since Tuesday. Captain West was left blind in one eye from the effects of the self-inflicted wound.

New York, July 17.—The engagement was announced here today of Miss Constance Buel to Vivian Burnett, the original of "Little Lord Fauntleroy," one of the many books written by his mother, Mrs. Frances Hodgeson Burnett. Miss Buel is a daughter of Clarence C. Buell, a well known magazine editor.

The railroad managers' committee, in a letter today to the men, denied they had refused to abide by awards. The letter suggested that a commission be established so that all disagreements arising out of a misunderstanding or misapplication of an award might be speedily and amicably settled.

SOME FINE TOBACCO.

Beautiful Picture Near Warsaw—Citizen Injured—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warsaw, N. C., July 17.—A beautiful picture is presented at the farm of A. B. Anderson, located a few miles from here. On this farm there is a field of 35 acres of tobacco, with a perfect stand, and about three and a half feet high, all in perfect condition. Photographs of the field will be taken in a few days, for the purpose of advertising this section of the State. Mr. Anderson is to build a prize house and will cure and prepare this tobacco ready for the manufactor before placing it on the market.

News of an accident which occurred in Hallsville, several miles from here, on Monday afternoon has just been learned. While Jeff Blaylock was driving a mule hitched to a buggy, the mule became frightened at a pile of stumps near the road, and instead of running as they are wont to do, attempted to turn around. Mr. Blaylock sprang from the buggy and tried to keep the buggy from overturning, but in so doing was thrown against a fense, and knocked unconscious. He regained his wits in a short time and went to a doctor, and is now doing nicely, except that he was badly shaken up.

L. B. Hollingsworth has received a letter from Congressman John M. Faison stating that as he made the highest percentage in the examination held a short time ago for the position of carrier on rural route No. 3 from this office, that his appointment had been recommended and that he would no doubt receive his notice in a few days. This route is 29 miles in length, being five miles longer than the average throughout the United States.

FAVORABLE DECISION.

To Government's Suit Against Chicago Board of Trade Handed Down.

Chicago, July 17.—A decision favorable to the government's suit against the Chicago Board of Trade to abolish what is known as the public "call" was made today by Federal Judge Landis, who ordered stricken out that portion of the defendant's answer wherein it was argued the case of the "call" was justifiable because large elevator companies were in an alleged combination to dominate the cash grain market.

It was said that this part of the answer constituted the board of trade's defense and that the court's ruling meant the government's petition eventually would be granted.

The Board of Trade is open from 9:30 A. M. to 1:15 P. M. The government's petition charged that a committee of five board members meets after 1:15 P. M. and fixes prices on grain which remain in effect until the board opens the following morning. The establishment of these prices by the "call" committee constitutes a conspiracy in restraint of trade, it was alleged.

MAY USE TROOPS TO BREAK UP RIOTING.

Governor Cox of Ohio, However, Has Not Ordered Them to Scene.

Columbus, O., July 17.—Officers of two regiments of the Ohio National Guard tonight received unofficial orders to be in readiness to go to Bellaire if the sheriff of Belmont county continues unable to enforce order among striking miners who have been rioting for a week under leadership of Industrial Workers of the World agitators. Early today the sheriff wired Governor Cox, 500 soldiers would be necessary to preserve the peace.

Governor Cox will not send troops, however, until county civil authorities have exhausted all means to quell the riots. State officials tonight expressed the belief that the situation will become quiet.

Washington, July 17.—Senator Borah's resolution to make public the hearings of the foreign relations committee in connection with the proposed pact with Colombia in open session when they reach the Senate was defeated today in executive session. Leaks in executive matters of the Senate came in for comment again.
